Song Favorites

- These compositions, by such significant composers as Peter De Rose, Alfred Newman and David Raksin were first published as piano solos.

- As their popularity increased, and the theme melodies attained universal renown, repeated requests from singers made it necessary to adapt them into song form.

- Consequently, such outstanding lyricists as Johnny Mercer, Harold Adamson, Mitchell Parish and Sammy Gallop were commissioned to adapt lyrics to these beautiful themes.

- The success of this series is best illustrated in the tremendous acclaim these songs have received on radio, concert and school programs.

- No repertoire of modern American ballads can be considered complete without these distinguished song favorites.

Moderato

Near - ly broken heart-ed since the day that I once start-ed from my Wa-bash home,
I am just a mour-ner for each lit - tle nook and cor-ner that I used to know,

In - di - an - a's sweet and it's a place that's hard to beat but then I longed to roam,
No more will I lin-ger cause I see a warn-ing fin-ger point-ing where to go,

My old homestead I now can see — I had a girl was as sweet as could be, —
There's no rea-son why I should stay — I'll take a hint and I'll beat it a - way, —

Patter Chorus

Thru the syc-a-more the can-dle light is shin-ing bright, Mem-'ry brings the scent of new-mown
 'Xpect to see the moonshine on the Wa-bash an-y night, Seems that such a pic-ture's bound to hay to me each night, I am start-ing for that spot no need to ask me when, turn me to the right, Mak-ing up my mind to see that home so far a-way,

I'll be leav-ing hoof-prints toward the old home road a-gain.
 But un-til that hap-pens here's the best that I can say:
